

Screenplay animation The Arista-babes

Annette- It's time to wake up my two piglets, today is a big day.

Sophie- Wake up Bradley, moms calling us, (Bradley was still sleeping) Sophie slapped him in the face.

Bradley- Ouch, why did you slap me?

Sophie- Mom wants us to get up.

Bradley- I heard her, you didn't have to slap me. I was just resting.

Sophie- If you really heard her what did mom say?

Bradley - A, It's time to eat breakfast, today is a great day.

Sophie- I rest my case.

Annette- Stop fiddling around Bradley and Sophie, come over here you two.

Annette- I heard our owner that we are going to get part of the will today.

Sophie- Really

Bradley- Nice (with expression)

Annette- Yup, it's true. Let's go in the house to get our morning breakfast. (Which is water and food?) Then do our music lessons.

In the house

Silvia walks out of the kitchen while Charles was preparing the pigs breakfast.

Silvia- Bring us some coffee before you give my darling pigs their breakfast, Charles.

The pigs walk in right after she left the kitchen.

Charles- walks in with coffee while Silva was talking and Charles was listening in to their conversation.

Silvia- I would like to give half of my money to the poor and a good chunk of the money to my darling pigs. To Charles my butler, I want give the house.

Bradley- I could hear our owner talk about her will. You're right mom, we will get half of her money.

Annette- Stop listening to their conversation Bradley, when our owner is ready to tell us; she will.

Sophie- Mom's right, don't be butting in to our owner's conversations.

In the kitchen

Charles- Why in the world would Silvia give a good chunk of her money to the pigs and I get this house! I am there butler. I take care of them and her too. I should get all of the money and give some to the poor too. (Then his eye brows rose.) I already made their food. So for lunch I put a little of sleeping powder in their food.

The piano room to eat breakfast

Annette- Come on eat your breakfast then Sophie and Bradley go to the piano and practice your music. For lunch we are going to meet Jerry in the other room.

The two piglets started to play (The Donut Man) on the piano.

Silvia- Didn't my darlings sound great on the piano!

Carl the lawyer- Yes they did, they should start a band.

Silvia- I want to give the house and the rest of my heritage funds to Charles.

Annette- Hey, Jerry as he comes out of his hole.

Jerry- I heard your music. You two sounded good on the piano. He took a bite of the food and he said

Jerry- This is good, I'm going to get some crackers from my hole and he never comes back.

Bradley yawned?

Sophie- Why arrrrrrrrre you tiiiired as she started to yawn?

Bradley- I'm not the one who's tired. You are as he starts closing his eyes.

Annette- Where is Jeeeeeeerry? As the mom started to yawn and they all fall asleep.
